MESSAGE TO HOLD MAN JUST FIVE MINUTES TOO LATE.

legfried B. Goldman, Recently Wedded, In Released by Police-Wanted in Lee Angeles.

Five minutes after Siegfried B. Goldman was released from the holdover yesterday by the police a message was received from Los Angeles asking that he be held. The belated order came after four messages had been sent to the Los Angeles authorities requesting them to send an officer for Goldman.

Goldman said that he was going to Los Angeles when released to investigate the charges against him, and it is believed that he has departed for that city.

Goldman was arrested at the Southern Hotel Saturday by Detectives Patrick Murphy, John Pinan and Michael Callahan on information from Los Angeles that he was wanted there on a charge of at-

Sum by Taking Chance on Rug.

Mrs Finna Baker of No. 817 North Fifteenth street yesterday reported to the police that she had been swindled out of a small amount of money by a woman.

Mrs. Baker says a woman called at her home Tuesday and represented herself as a good samaritan. She had a number of tickets, witch she said were for a raffle of a tiger-hide rug. The rug was being raffled for a Mrs. "Martin," who, with five children, was in destitute circumstances, the woman said. A number on Wash street was given, where she said Mrs. Martin lived, as was also the number of the store on Franklin avenue, where the stranger said the rug was on exhibition. After purchasing a ticket in the supposed raffle, Mrs. linker grew simpletous and investigated, with the result that no person of the name of Martin lived at the house and there was no rug at the store.
